The 1989 Ohio State football media guide was written by Steve Snapp, with assistance from Rick VanBrimmer and D.C. Koehl, and edited by Carol Lapp, Mike Bullock, Tim Dwyer and Marty Galosi.

Copies of this publication are available at the Sports Information Office for $7.00. If ordering by mail, please include an additional $1.00 for postage. Make all checks payable to The Ohio State University and mail them to: Ohio State Football Media Guide, 124 St. John Arena, 410 Woody Hayes Dr., Columbus, O. 43210.

On the Cover: Quarterback Grey Frey (15), All-American tailback candidate Carlos Snow (25), tackle Joe Staysniak (79) and the Ohio State defense in action last year.

100 Years: This is Ohio State's 100th football season. The Buckeyes began intercollegiate football in 1890. The logo on the preceding page will be used throughout the season to commemorate Ohio State's first 100 years of football.

Media Information

This publication has been provided to assist you in your coverage of Ohio State football. We hope that it will be an invaluable asset to you during the 1989 season. During the year, you also will receive weekly updates from the Sports Information Office, designed to keep you informed about the progress of the Ohio State football team. Specific requests for other items should be directed to Steve Snapp, Sports Information Director, 124 St. John Arena, 410 Woody Hayes Dr., Columbus, O. 43210.

CREDENTIALS — Requests for working press credentials for Ohio State's home football games must be made in writing and on company letterhead. Direct all requests to Steve Snapp at the Sports Information Office.

Members of the electronic media and those daily and Sunday papers covering Ohio State and its opponents on a regular basis will receive first priority for credentials. If space permits, every attempt will be made to honor other requests.

Season credentials will be mailed out the last week of August. Single-game tickets will be mailed approximately 10 days before the game requested.

Again this year, all sideline passes (photo armbands) must be picked up in person at Gate 19 before each game. Those persons requesting photo passes will be sent a parking pass and a ticket that can be exchanged for an armband upon arrival at the stadium.

All credentials are non-transferable and are limited to members of the working media only. Your cooperation in this matter will help ensure the best possible working conditions in the Ohio Stadium Press Box.

PRESS LUNCHEONS — Beginning Sept. 11 and running through Nov. 20, head coach John Cooper will meet with the media each Monday throughout the season for an informal luncheon and press conference. This year's luncheons begin at 11:30 a.m. and will be held in the atrium at the Woody Hayes Athletic Center. All working media are encouraged to attend. All other requests for interviews with Coach Cooper should be directed to his secretary, Julie Bonfini, at (614) 292-7620.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS — All requests for interviews with Ohio State players should be made through the Sports Information Office. Please make your request a day in advance to allow enough time to arrange the interview. Interviews will be held in either the Sports Information Office or the Woody Hayes Athletic Center. The best time for extended interviews is normally between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m., depending on the players' class schedules and team obligations. Television stations usually will be able to do interviews of a shorter duration just prior to practice. All phone interviews will be conducted in the Sports Information Office.

COVERING PRACTICE — Ohio State's practices are open to the media. Once school starts, the team normally will take the field around 3:15 p.m. For your own safety, you are urged to stay back off the playing field when practice is in session. All practices will be held at the Woody Hayes Athletic Center. Coach Cooper usually is available for interviews both before and after practice.

PRESS BOX — Writers, broadcasters and those camera crews that have requested a press box location should exit the elevator on the "P-2" level. Lunch is served on the "P-1" level, beginning two hours before kickoff.

TELEPHONES — There are several phones available on a first-come, first-served basis in the Ohio Stadium Press Box, but anyone needing a private line should contact the campus phone office at (614) 292-8648.

BEEPER REPORTS — In accordance with Ohio State policy, radio beeper reports may be done only at the end of each quarter. No live reports may be done when the game is in progress. Any station doing a beeper report must install a phone line before a credential will be issued.

LOCKER ROOM POLICY — Due to space limitations, the Ohio State locker room is not open after a home game. Instead, requested players are taken to an interview room following an appropriate cooling off period. The same policy holds true for road games.

SIDELINE POLICY — Photographers are reminded that armbands must be worn on the arm at all times. Additionally, photographers are not permitted in either team's bench area (between the 25-yard lines) and must stay behind the 12-foot restraining line that surrounds the field. All photographers must kneel.

Method for Determining Big Ten Participant in Rose Bowl Game

1. Designation of Representative Team

The Conference representative shall be determined by the following procedures:

A. The Conference champion shall be the representative team. The championship shall be determined on the percentage basis of Conference games (tie game counts ½ win and ½ loss).

B. An ineligible team shall not be considered in the standings for determination of the Conference representative.

C. If there is a tie for the championship, the winner of the game between these two teams shall represent the Conference.

D. If there is still a tie, or if the tied teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on the percentage basis of all games played.

E. If there is still a tie, the most recent team representing the Conference shall be eliminated.

F. If there are more than two teams tied for the championship, the same selection procedure shall be followed with the following exceptions:
   1. If three teams are tied, and if one team defeated both of the other teams, then that team shall be the representative.
   2. If three teams are tied, and if two of the three teams defeated the third team, the third team is eliminated, and the remaining two teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.
   3. If three teams are tied, and there is a tie game between two of the three teams, or if two of the three teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on a percentage basis of all games played.
   4. If three teams are tied, and one of the three teams is eliminated through the percentage basis of all games played procedure, the remaining two teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.
   5. If three teams are tied, and all three teams have the same winning percentage of all games played, the most recent team representing the Conference shall be eliminated, and the two remaining teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.

G. If there are four teams tied for the championship, the following selection procedure shall be followed:
   1. If one team defeated each of the other three teams, then that team shall be the representative.
   2. If two of the four teams defeated each of the other two teams, the latter two teams shall be eliminated, and the two remaining teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.
   3. If three of the four teams defeated the fourth team, the fourth team is eliminated, and the remaining three teams shall revert to the three-team tie procedure.
   4. If there is a tie game between two of the four teams, or if two of the four teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on a percentage of all games played.
   5. If one of the four teams is eliminated through the percentage of all games played procedure, the remaining three teams shall revert to the three-team tie procedure.
   6. If all four teams share the same winning percentage of all games played, the most recent team representing the Conference shall be eliminated and the three remaining teams shall revert to the three-team tie procedure.

John Cooper — Head Football Coach

John Cooper is in his second year as Ohio State football coach. He was named to his present position on Dec. 31, 1987, and is the 21st head coach in Buckeye history.

The 52-year-old Cooper is in his 28th season of coaching. Prior to becoming a head coach, he spent 15 years as an assistant at five different schools. In 12 years as a head coach, he has compiled a career record of 86-46-3, recorded 10 winning seasons, captured six league championships and coached in three bowl games. He was National Coach of the Year in 1986.

Cooper's first Ohio State team, ravaged by a series of injuries to key players, finished with a 4-6-1 record. But the new Buckeye coach led his team to wins over Syracuse and LSU and tied Iowa in Iowa City. The Buckeyes also just missed upsetting conference champion Michigan in what will go down as one of the most exciting Ohio State-Michigan games of all time. At the end of the year, Cooper was selected to serve as one of the head coaches in the Blue-Gray Game.

Cooper came to Ohio State after three highly successful years at Arizona State (1985-87), where he led the Sun Devils to a 25-9-2 record and three straight bowl appearances. His 1986 squad posted a 10-1-1 record, won the school's first ever Pac 10 championship and capped off a brilliant year by defeating Michigan in the Rose Bowl. He was a unanimous choice as National Coach of the Year that year.

Prior to Arizona State, Cooper spent eight seasons (1977-84) as head coach at Tulsa, posting a combined record of 57-31 and winning five straight Missouri Valley Conference titles from 1980 to 1984. Five of his teams won seven or more games, including the 1982 edition of the Golden Hurricane which fashioned a glittering 10-1 record.

Cooper is a native of Powell, Tenn., and a 1962 graduate of Iowa State University. At Iowa State, Cooper played tailback and safety, was a three-time letterman and served as team captain as a senior. Following his graduation, Cooper began his coaching career in the fall of 1962 as the freshman football mentor at his alma mater.

Cooper left Iowa State the following year to become an assistant at Oregon State under Tommy Prothro. He worked for Prothro for four years, two at Oregon State and two at UCLA. During that time he was involved in two Rose Bowls — in 1965 while at Oregon State and in 1966 while at UCLA.

Cooper left the West Coast in 1967 to become an assistant on Pepper Rodgers' staff at Kansas. He was defensive coordinator in 1968 when the Jayhawks played in the Orange Bowl and won nine of 11 games.

Cooper made his final move as an assistant in 1972 when he joined forces with Fran Curci at Kentucky. He remained with the Wildcats until 1977 when he was named head coach at Tulsa.

Cooper engineered an amazing turn around at Tulsa. After going 3-8 the first year, he directed the Golden Hurricane to a 9-2 record in 1978, the first of seven straight winning seasons for the Missouri Valley Conference school. In that span, his teams won five straight league championships between 1980 and 1984. When he left Tulsa, the school had not lost a conference game in three years.

From Tulsa, Cooper's next stop was Arizona State. He was an immediate success, directing his first Sun Devil team to an 8-4 record and a berth in the Holiday Bowl. A 16-13 loss to arch-foe Arizona on the final day of the season kept ASU out of the Rose Bowl.

But Cooper was not to be denied the following year, guiding the Sun Devils to their 10-1-1 mark and a first ever visit to the Rose Bowl. It was a spectacular season that included a seven-game winning streak and featured wins over traditional Pac 10 powers UCLA, Washington and USC. After a convincing 22-15 victory over Michigan in the Rose Bowl, the Sun Devils finished fourth in both wire service polls.

In 1987, Arizona State again went bowling, this time to the Freedom Bowl, where a win over the Air Force Academy left the Sun Devils with a 7-4-1 mark in what was supposed to have been a rebuilding year.

Following the 1987 campaign, Cooper was offered, and accepted, the position of head football coach at Ohio State.

Cooper is married and he and his wife, Helen, have two children, Johnny and Cindy, both of whom also reside in Columbus. Cooper's hobbies include fishing, hunting and golfing.

Assistant Football Coaches

Jim Colletto

JIM COLLETTO

Assistant Head Coach
Offensive Coordinator
2nd year at OSU

Jim Colletto is in his second year as an assistant football coach at Ohio State. He accompanied John Cooper from Arizona State.

Colletto, 44, is widely recognized as one of the game's most innovative offensive minds. Offensive coordinator at ASU, his 1986 offense averaged 31 points, 404 yards and 21 first downs per game. The Sun Devils were 10-1-1 that year and won the Pac-10 title and the Rose Bowl.

Prior to moving to Arizona State, Colletto spent three years (1982-84) as Purdue's offensive coordinator. His 1984 Boilermakers ranked seventh nationally in passing with an average of 274 yards per game.

Colletto is a native of San Francisco. He attended UCLA and played football and baseball for the Bruins. He was captain of the 1965 team that defeated Michigan State in the Rose Bowl. As a sophomore fullback in 1963, he led UCLA in rushing.

After graduating from UCLA in 1967, Colletto became an assistant coach at his alma mater. He spent two years there, one at Brown, two at Xavier of Ohio and three at Pacific before becoming head coach at Cal State-Fullerton. He spent five years at Fullerton (1975-79) and his 1978 team was fourth nationally in rushing and seventh in total offense.

Colletto returned to UCLA in 1980 as coach of the tackles and tight ends. He remained there for two years before going to Purdue.

Colletto and his wife, Suzanne, have three children: Dawn (19), Dan (17) and Patrick (9).

Bill Young

BILL YOUNG

Defensive Coordinator
Defensive Line
2nd year at OSU

Bill Young joined the Ohio State football staff on Jan. 19, 1988. He accompanied John Cooper from Arizona State.

At ASU, Young coached the Sun Devils' defensive line. His 1985 line was a stabilizing force in a defense that allowed only six rushing touchdowns all season long and held opposing backs to an average of 2.6 yards per carry. His 1986 line was credited with an impressive 16 quarterback sacks.

The Cooper-Young connection dates back to 1980 at the University of Tulsa, where Young was Cooper's defensive line coach from 1980 to 1982 and his defensive coordinator in 1983 and 1984.

Young was born in Hereford, Tex., and graduated from Grant High School in Oklahoma City, Okla. He attended Oklahoma State and was a three-year starter on the defensive line for the Cowboys.

Young graduated from Oklahoma State in 1967. Following graduation, Young spent seven years as an assistant high school coach in Oklahoma City. In 1976, he returned to his alma mater as assistant offensive line coach. In 1978, he became defensive line coach for the Cowboys. He left his alma mater in 1979 to become defensive line coach at Iowa State. After one year there, he joined forces with Cooper at Tulsa.

Young is married to the former Lawana McCord.

Gene Huey

GENE HUEY

Wide Receivers
2nd year at OSU

Gene Huey is in his second year as a member of the Ohio State football staff. He coaches the Buckeyes' wide receivers.

Huey came to Ohio State from Arizona State, where he was the Sun Devils' wide receivers coach.

Prior to ASU, Huey spent nine years as receivers coach at Nebraska. He also has coached at Wyoming and New Mexico.

Huey is from Uniontown, Pennsylvania. He went to college at the University of Wyoming, graduating in 1971. While at Wyoming, he played split end and defensive back. He set 13 receiving records and is the only player in the history of the Western Athletic Conference to win all-WAC honors on both offense and defense. He was a co-captain for the Cowboys and played on three conference championship teams.

Huey began his coaching career at Wyoming. Between 1970 and 1972 he assisted with the defensive backs and wide receivers while a graduate assistant. In 1972, he was named head freshman coach.

Huey went to the University of New Mexico in 1974 as coach of the wide receivers. He left the Lobos after the 1977 season to join Tom Osborne's staff at Nebraska. While at Nebraska, he assisted in coordinating the Cornhuskers' passing attack.

He joined forces with Cooper at Arizona State prior to the 1987 campaign and accompanied Cooper to Ohio State. Huey is single.

Assistant Football Coaches

Ron Hudson

RON HUDSON

Quarterbacks
2nd year at OSU

Ron Hudson is in his second year at Ohio State. He coached the OSU running backs in 1988, but will be in charge of the quarterbacks this year.

Hudson, 42, came to Ohio State from the University of Illinois, where he coached the running backs in 1987, his only year on the Illini staff.

Prior to Illinois, Hudson spent a year in the USFL, serving as quarterback and wide receivers coach of the Memphis Showboats.

Hudson's extensive background also includes stops at Oregon, UCLA and Notre Dame.

A native of Lafayette, California, Hudson earned his bachelor's degree from the University of California in 1969.

He began his coaching career at Cal in 1972 and remained there until 1976. He coached the defensive line, secondary and wide receivers during his five years at his alma mater.

Hudson left Cal in 1977 for the University of Oregon. He spent two years at Oregon as coach of the quarterbacks and running backs.

In 1979, Hudson went to UCLA to coach the Bruins' running backs. He spent three years on Terry Donahue's staff before going to Notre Dame in 1982. During his four years at Notre Dame, he coached the Irish quarterbacks and was offensive coordinator for two years.

Hudson is single.

Bob Palcic

BOB PALCIC

Guards and Centers
4th year at OSU

Bob Palcic is in his fourth year as an assistant football coach at Ohio State. He coaches the Buckeyes' offensive line, specifically the guards and centers.

Palcic came to Ohio State in June of 1986 from the University of Arizona, where he was the offensive line coach for two years.

Palcic is a native of Gowanda, New York. He attended the University of Dayton and graduated in 1971. While at Dayton, he played linebacker for the Flyers.

After graduation, Palcic spent two years as an assistant coach at Carroll High School in Dayton. In 1973, he went to Ball State to serve as a graduate assistant, and in 1974 he returned to the University of Dayton as a full-time assistant.

In 1976, Palcic went back to Ball State, this time to coach the offensive line for the late Dave McClain. Palcic accompanied McClain to the University of Wisconsin in 1978. He coached the Badgers' offensive line between 1978 and 1981, leaving in 1982 for a similar position with the Toronto Argonauts. He was with the Argonauts for two years before going to Arizona prior to the 1984 season.

Bob and his wife, Theresa, have three children, Joe, Amy and Monica.

Bobby Turner

BOBBY TURNER

Running Backs
1st year at OSU

Bobby Turner is in his first year as a member of the Ohio State football staff. Turner, who coaches the OSU running backs, joined the Buckeye staff this past February.

Turner brings 14 years of coaching experience to OSU. Before coming to Ohio State he spent six years working with the running backs at Fresno State. Prior to that, he was an assistant for eight years at Indiana State (his alma mater) where, in addition to coaching the running backs, he also was responsible for the defensive backs.

The 39-year-old Turner was born in Midway, Ala., but grew up in East Chicago, Ind. He graduated from Indiana State in 1972. Turner played both football and basketball for the Sycamores, earning all conference honors in the former as a defensive back. Among his more noteworthy accomplishments as an athlete are 16 career interceptions, including a school-record nine his sophomore season.

After graduation, Turner spent three years as an assistant football and basketball coach at Haworth High School in Kokomo, Ind. He returned to his alma mater in 1976, remaining there until joining Jim Sweeney at Fresno State in 1983.

Turner and his wife, Kim, have two daughters, Nacole Marie and Krishana Lynn.

Gary Blackney

GARY BLACKNEY

Inside Linebackers
6th year at OSU

Gary Blackney is in his sixth year as a member of the Ohio State football staff. He coaches the inside linebackers.

Blackney joined the Buckeye staff in 1984 as defensive backfield coach. From 1985 through 1987, he served as defensive coordinator. His 1986 defense led the Big Ten in scoring defense and was fourth nationally in turnover margin.

Blackney is a 1967 graduate of Connecticut, where he was an Academic All-American. He began his coaching career at Connecticut in 1967, remaining there until 1970 when he became defensive coordinator at Brown. During his stay at Brown (1970-72) he also coached the defensive backs.

Blackney moved to Rhode Island in 1973 as coach of the quarterbacks and running backs. He stayed there two years, leaving in 1975 to join the staff at the University of Wisconsin. He spent three years with the Badgers (1975-77), the first two coaching the secondary and the third as defensive coordinator.

Blackney's next move was to the Pac-10, where he coached the UCLA secondary in 1978 and '79. He left UCLA in 1980 to return to his native New York as the secondary coach at Syracuse. When he came to Ohio State in 1984, he also was recruiting coordinator at Syracuse.

Gary and his wife, Lauretta, have four children, Deborah, David, Kyle and Gary Jr.

Fred Pagac

FRED PAGAC

Outside Linebackers
8th year at OSU

Fred Pagac is in his eighth year as a full-time member of the Ohio State football staff. Named to his present position in 1982, he coaches the outside linebackers for the Buckeyes.

Pagac (Pug-itch), a native of Richeyville, Pennsylvania, graduated from Ohio State in 1975. He played tight end for the Buckeyes, lettering in 1971 and 1972 and starting in 1973. Both the 1972 and '73 squads won the Big Ten title and played in the Rose Bowl.

Pagac played in the National Football League for five years. In 1974, while with the Chicago Bears, he received the Brian Piccolo Award. The latter is presented annually to the Bears' player who best exemplifies Piccolo's inspirational qualities.

Following his professional football career, Pagac returned to Ohio State as a graduate assistant coach. He served in that capacity between 1978 and 1981 before being elevated to full-time status in 1982.

Pagac has helped develop a number of outstanding players at Ohio State, including two-time all-Big Ten pick Eric Kumerow, a first-round selection in the NFL draft.

Fred and his wife, Bernadette, have two children, Jennifer and Frederick Lance.

Ron Zook

RON ZOOK

Defensive Backs
2nd year at OSU

Ron Zook joined the Ohio State football staff on Jan. 18, 1988. He coaches the OSU defensive backs.

Zook came to Ohio State from Virginia Tech, where he was defensive coordinator and assistant head coach.

Zook is a native of Loudonville, O., and a 1976 graduate of Miami (O.). He played defensive back for the Redskins and was team captain as a senior. While at Miami, he helped lead the Redskins to three Mid-American Conference titles, three appearances in the Tangerine Bowl and a combined record of 34-1-1.

Following graduation, Zook spent two years as a high school coach before launching his college career at Murray State in 1978. He coached the Racers' defensive backfield through the 1980 season.

Zook left Murray in 1981 to become the defensive coordinator at the University of Cincinnati. He remained there one year before going to Kansas in the same capacity.

Following the 1983 season, Zook left Kansas to become the secondary coach at the University of Tennessee. He remained at Tennessee for three years (1984-86) before moving to Virginia Tech prior to the 1987 season.

Ron and his wife Denise have two daughters, Jacquelyn and Casey.

Football Support Staff

Steve Pederson

STEVE PEDERSON

Recruiting Coordinator
2nd year at OSU

Steve Pederson is in his second year as recruiting coordinator for the Ohio State Athletic Department.

Pederson is a native of North Platte, Nebraska. He graduated from the University of Nebraska in 1980 with a degree in business administration.

Following graduation, Pederson worked for a year as an assistant in the Nebraska Sports Information Office.

In 1981, Pederson left college athletics to become Director of Public Relations with a private firm in Omaha. He returned to his alma mater in 1982, however, as Administrative Assistant and Recruiting Coordinator on Tom Osborne's football staff.

Pederson remained at Nebraska four years. During that time he was instrumental in designing the computer recruiting program currently used by Paciolan.

Pederson left Nebraska in 1986 to return to private business. After one year out of athletics, he accepted his current position with the Buckeyes.

Pederson and his wife, Tami, have two children, Mark and Kari.

Dave Kennedy

DAVE KENNEDY

Strength and Conditioning Coach
1st year at OSU

Dave Kennedy is in his first year as Ohio State's strength and conditioning coach. The 28-year-old Kennedy joined the Buckeyes' staff this past June.

Before coming to Ohio State, Kennedy spent four years as the assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Nebraska. His responsibilities there included developing and monitoring the summer and winter conditioning program for the Huskers' football team.

In addition to his football duties at Ohio State, Kennedy will be responsible for overseeing the conditioning program for all varsity sports.

Kennedy is a native of Omaha, Neb., and a 1985 graduate of the University of Nebraska. While working on his undergraduate degree in exercise science, he spent three years as a student assistant strength coach.

Kennedy is currently working on his master's degree.

Billy Hill

BILLY HILL

Head Trainer
15th year at OSU

Billy Hill is in his 15th year as head trainer for the Ohio State football team. He was named to his present position of Co-Head Trainer in 1974 after three years as assistant on the OSU staff.

Hill is one of the most respected trainers in college athletics. His many honors include being named 1988 Ohio Trainer of the Year by the Ohio Trainers Association.

Hill has extensive international experience. He has been head trainer at the 1975 Pan Am Games in Mexico City, the 1983 World Track and Field Championships in Helsinki and the 1984 Summer Olympics in Los Angeles. Additionally, he has toured the U.S.S.R., West Germany and Great Britain as the trainer for various U.S. track teams.

Hill was born and raised in Memphis, Tenn. He served in the Army between 1968 and '71, including a year in Vietnam as a corpsman.

Following the service, Hill enrolled at Ohio State and received a B.A. in Education in 1973.

Hill is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, the Ohio Athletic Trainers Association, the Minority Trainers Association and the Merry Makers Club of Columbus.

Last Year's Starters In Caps.

Buckeye Outlook

Untested a year ago, quarterback Greg Frey now has 11 games as a starter under his belt.

Tailback Carlos Snow will be the workhorse of the Ohio State offense in 1989.

What are the keys to Ohio State bouncing back from last year's 4-6-1 record?

"We have to be more consistent on offense and we have to avoid mistakes," answers head coach John Cooper. "Defensively, we have to be more aggressive and start forcing the issue. And we have to develop some depth."

Cooper has 15 starters returning from a year ago, eight on offense and seven on defense. Additionally, both of the regular kickers are back.

"Our offense has the potential to be very good," he says. "We have a big, strong, smart offensive line, two explosive running backs, good receivers and an experienced quarterback who started all 11 games last year.

"We should be more consistent this year because the players now have a much better understanding of our system and, at the same time, we know a little bit more about what they can do."

That added year of experience is also expected to benefit the defense, as will the return of tackle Mike Showalter and linebackers Andy Gurd and Derek Isaman. Showalter and Gurd each started the first three games last year before suffering season-ending injuries. Isaman, a starter in 1986, did not compete in 1988 because he was trying out for the Olympic Boxing Team.

"Having those three back will certainly help," says Cooper. "And we made a couple of position changes in the spring that are going to pay off. I don't think there is any question about it, we will be a better defensive team this year.

"Our biggest problem is the depth thing. Hopefully, some of the freshmen can come in and contribute. But until that happens, and the defense gels, the offense may have to carry us."

THE OFFENSE

The offense will center around explosive tailback Carlos Snow, a 5-9, 200-pound junior who rushed for 775 yards last year and could well be the Buckeyes' next All-American.

"Carlos has the potential to be as good as any back in the country," says Cooper. "If he can stay healthy he should have a great year because we plan to get him the ball 25 to 30 times a game."

Snow's running mate will be 5-10, 225-pound fullback Scottie Graham, a hard hitting sophomore with a bright future of his own. Graham, a converted tailback, is still untested, but based on spring practice he and Snow have the makings of a potentially lethal tandem.

At quarterback, Greg Frey will once again call the signals. The 6-2 junior started all 11 games last year and threw for 2,028 yards and eight touchdowns; solid figures for a first-year starter in a new system.

"Greg is better in every area this year, especially in some of the intangibles like leadership and inspiring the other players," says Cooper. "He's our quarterback."

Up front, a trio of all-star candidates, Joe Staysniak (6-5, 290) and Tim Moxley (6-7, 310) at the tackles and Jeff Davidson (6-6, 300) at guard, are the mainstays of a veteran offensive line that has Cooper excited.

"We want to get back into the Ohio State mold of dominating the line of scrimmage," says Cooper. "That was always a characteristic of the great Ohio State teams under Coach (Woody) Hayes. This line has that kind of ability."

The contenders for the other two interior spots are Dan Beatty (6-4, 260) and Mike Kuri (6-5, 275) at center and Karl Coles (6-5, 295) and John Peterson (6-4, 285) at strong guard. The latter two have seen extensive playing time during their careers, but Beatty and Kuri are relatively untested and that has Cooper somewhat concerned.

But there is no concern at tight end, not with Jeff Ellis returning. A 6-4, 250-pound junior, Ellis led Ohio State in receiving last year with 40 receptions. If he has the kind of year everyone expects in 1989, he will be a bonafide All-American candidate in his own right.

"Jeff has always been a good receiver," says Cooper. "And now that he has improved his blocking he has the total package."

Sure-handed Jeff Graham returns at split end. A diamond in the rough, the speedy Graham had 27 receptions last year and demonstrated the ability to catch in a crowd. He's the big play receiver a quarterback looks for in time of trouble.

As they did last year, Bobby Olive (25 catches) and Bernard Edwards (11 grabs) will alternate at flanker. There's a chance, too, that freshman Aaron Payne, a renowned speedster out of Louisville, KY, could get some playing time.

When the offense stalls, kicker Pat O'Morrow and punter Jeff Bohlman will take over. O'Morrow is one of college football's best. He led OSU in scoring last year with 77 points and made 18 of 23 field goals, including 18 of 18 inside the 49. Bohlman won the starting job last year as a walk-on and averaged 39 yards a kick.

"We are solid in those two areas," says Cooper. "Our biggest concern in the kicking game is coverage. We have to improve there."

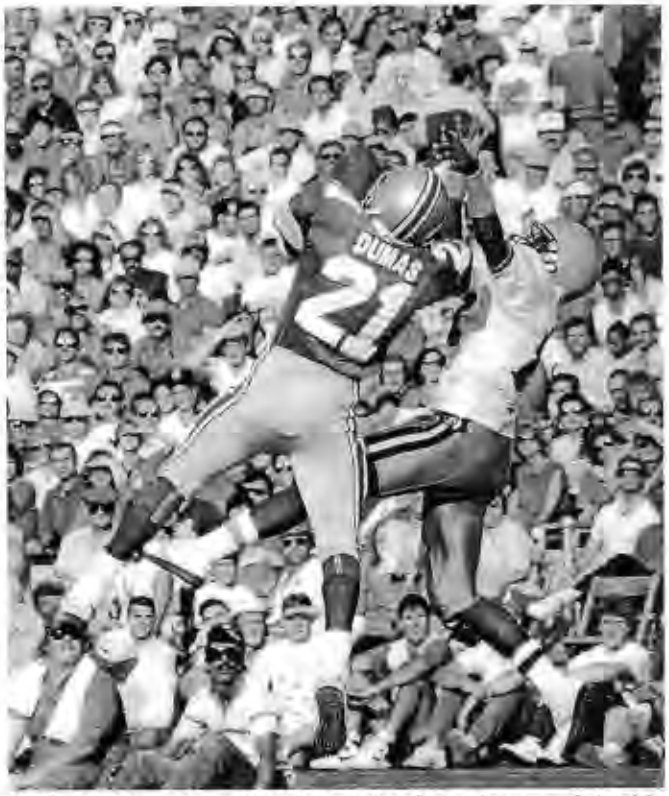
THE DEFENSE

The return of three experienced veterans like Showalter, Gurd and Isaman should in itself give the Buckeyes a more aggressive defensive posture. Additionally, the coaching staff has made a number of position changes designed to, as Cooper says, "force the issue."

Two of those changes are in the secondary, where David Brown shifts from free safety to cornerback and Zack Dumas goes from corner to strong safety. The move better utilizes Brown's speed on the corner and Dumas' combination of speed and size in the deep zone.

"This should also give Zack the chance to make more big plays," says Cooper. "He is the kind of athlete that can make things happen back there."

Dumas started 10 games last year and was the team's third leading tackler with 85 total stops. Brown is in his fourth year as a starter, although he did not start the final three games of last season because of a pulled hamstring.



Zack Dumas moves from cornerback to strong safety this year.

Outlook

Vince Clark and either Mark Pelini or Bryan Cook round out the backfield. Clark, a promising young player whose only shortcoming is inexperience, will start at the left corner, where he started six games a year ago. Pelini, a solid performer who started the final three games of the 1988 campaign, and Cook, a redshirt freshman who had an excellent spring, are competing for the starting nod at free safety.

Another holdover, Jim Peel, is also very much in the picture. He started nine games at strong safety last year and was second on the team in tackles with 86. Peel, who had a team-high 54 solo stops, figures to back up Dumas and will be the nickel. He's a valuable utility back.

"We have some backs this year who can play good man-to-man coverage," says Cooper. "That means we can take a few more chances with our other people."

At inside linebacker, Isaman appears to have one spot locked up. The year off may have left him a little rusty, but it did nothing to dull his appetite for the game. He played the entire spring with a broken hand and never missed a practice.

"Derek is a tough, hard-nosed football player who likes contact," says Cooper. "Coaches like that. He's playing inside for the first time this year, but he will get it done."

The other inside spot probably will go to Gurd, who had 26 tackles and was OSU's top linebacker before being hurt last year. But he did miss spring practice while recovering from two off-season shoulder operations and his health is somewhat of a question mark.

Orlondo Craig was healthy in the spring and he is ready to step in if Gurd is slow to recover. Craig started the final eight games of 1988 as Gurd's replacement and had 70 tackles, the fourth best total on the team.

Freshman redshirt Brent Johnson has nailed down the backup spot behind Isaman. He's one of those successful experiments Cooper talked about, making a smooth transition from running back in the spring.

The outside linebackers are the most inexperienced element of the defense. Tom Lease (6-5, 230) and Derrick Foster (6-5, 240) are both redshirt freshmen, and Jay Koch (6-2, 220), who will contend with Lease for the starting spot opposite Foster, was a backup flanker last fall. None of the three has any game experience, but all are talented football players and it won't be long before outside backer will be considered one of OSU's strengths. Additionally, incoming freshman Alonzo Spellman, who tips the scales at 6-6 and 265, will get a long look in the fall.

Showalter (6-4, 270), on the other hand, is a proven commodity. He was a part-time starter as both a freshman and sophomore and was off to his best start last year before tearing cartilage in his ankle. A physical player and a good pass rusher, he will be a steady, dependable tackle.

The return of veteran Andy Gurd at linebacker is expected to give the OSU defense a lift.

Pat Thomas (6-1, 260), a fifth-year senior, is the nose guard. After spending the past two years in a backup role, he is more than ready for his turn in the limelight. Twenty pounds heavier than a year ago, he is one of the Buckeyes' strongest linemen.

Versatile Srecko Zizakovic (6-5, 250) will be the end. He moves over from outside linebacker, where he started 10 games last year. A down lineman in 1987, he has quickly re-adapted to his old position.

Ken Coleman (6-2, 260) and Rich Frimel (6-3, 250) are two key reserves. Coleman, a junior, replaced Showalter last year and started the last seven games. Frimel was one of just three true freshmen to see action, playing in all 11 games. He has an extremely bright future at end.

Help could come too from big Corey Pargo (6-3, 280), who sat out last year as a freshman but is very highly regarded. He will vie for a backup spot at nose guard, along with Greg Smith.

"We had a good spring practice, worked hard, very hard on fundamentals," says Cooper. "We are a stronger, better football team than we were a year ago and the attitude of our players is absolutely great.

"We are anxious to get started."

The Ohio State University

The Ohio State University offers a dynamic environment for people seeking opportunity, academic excellence, diversity and challenge.

Ohio State always has dedicated itself to bringing a college education to every citizen who has the desire and the ability.

The Columbus campus — with a combined student, faculty and staff population of about 75,000 — is one of the two largest in the nation. University-wide, some 4,500 faculty members and 58,000 students give Ohio State a student to faculty ratio of 13 to one. More than 75 percent of the faculty hold doctoral or professional degrees, and more than 10,000 of the students are enrolled in graduate and professional programs.

Ohio State's faculty includes a Nobel Prize winner, members of the National Academy of Sciences, Guggenheim and Fulbright Fellows, Rhodes Scholars, and editors of prestigious journals.

The student body includes more than 2,800 honors students, several hundred National Merit and National Achievement Scholars, and recipients of many other awards for scholarship, leadership and talent.

Ohio State comprises a main campus in Columbus; regional campuses at Lima, Mansfield, Marion and Newark; the Agricultural Technical Institute in Wooster, and the Ohio Agricultural Research and Development Center in Wooster with branches in a dozen counties. Ohio State also manages a transportation research center in East Liberty.

Faculty and students work and study in many Ohio locations, ranging from a freshwater biological station on Gibraltar Island in Lake Erie to a research farm near the Ohio River.

The University's programs also extend throughout the country and to all seven continents.

Ohio State's lands include nearly 3,300 acres in Columbus and about 12,200 acres elsewhere in Ohio. The University's Don Scott Field is the third busiest airport in the state.

Four of the University's 726 buildings — Ohio Stadium, Enarson Hall, Hayes Hall and Orton Hall — are listed in the National Register of Historic Places.

Ohio State awards some 10,000 degrees each year at quarterly commencement exercises with each diploma handed to the graduate by his or her college dean. Ohio State has awarded more than 370,000 degrees since its first commencement in 1878.

Established as a land-grant college in 1870, the University is made up of 19 colleges and a graduate school. Students may choose from more than 8,500 courses and select from 219 undergraduate majors. Ohio State offers 124 master's degree programs and 91 doctoral degree programs in 108 fields of study.

The many specialized research programs at Ohio State include theatre, polar studies, medieval and Renaissance studies, human resources, women's studies, Lake Erie research, and biomedical engineering. The comprehensive research complex includes a supercomputer, a nuclear reactor and a laser spectroscopy laboratory.

Ohio State's radio and television stations bring news and information to the public. The Ohio Cooperative Extension Service shares information on agriculture, horticulture, home economics, 4-H, and community and natural resources development with people throughout Ohio.

University Hospitals in Columbus, dental and optometry clinics, and a veterinary hospital provide community health services. A major cancer research and treatment facility is under construction.

The University's annual budget tops $938 million, including $304 million from state appropriations and $142 million from student tuition and fees.

The Ohio State University Campaign is nearing its goal of raising $350 million in private funds. The money will support endowed chairs and professorships in nearly 80 areas of study, increase student aid, and provide for projects such as the Wexner Center for the Visual Arts and the expansion of the Law Building.

Edward H. Jennings—President

Dr. Edward H. Jennings

Edward H. Jennings became the 10th president of The Ohio State University on Sept. 1, 1981, after two years as president of the University of Wyoming. He also holds an appointment as professor in the Academic Faculty of Finance at Ohio State.

Previously, he was vice president for finance and university services at the University of Iowa, where he also was a faculty member for 10 years.

Born Feb. 18, 1937, in Minneapolis, Jennings grew up in Washington, D.C. He received his Bachelor of Science degree in industrial management from the University of North Carolina in 1959, and his Master of Business Administration degree in 1963 from Western Reserve University (now Case Western Reserve). He earned his Doctor of Philosophy degree in finance at the University of Michigan in 1969.

Jennings' background includes experience in both the academic community and private enterprise. He was an industrial engineer for Deering Milliken of Spartanburg, S.C., from 1959-61, and a senior industrial engineer, production planner and production supervisor with Merck and Co., West Point, Pa., from 1963-65.

He began his teaching career as a visiting lecturer in finance at Eastern Michigan University in 1967.

After receiving his doctorate, Jennings joined the University of Iowa faculty in 1969, rising from assistant professor to professor of finance and serving in several administrative capacities. He was chairman of the Department of Business Administration, 1974-75; assistant dean of faculties and director of Summer Session, 1975-76, and vice president for finance and university services, 1976-79.

While at Iowa, Jennings acted as an adviser to the Iowa Bankers Association and held visiting appointments at the University of Hawaii, 1974, and at the University of Dar es Salaam, Tanzania, 1972-73.

Jennings is a member of the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges. He is chairman of the organization's Council of Presidents and a member of the Committee on Federal Legislation.

He is a member of the Ohio Board of Regents' Ohio Supercomputer Center Governing Board, the board of directors of the National Merit Scholarship Corp. and the advisory board of the Paton Accounting Center in the Graduate School of Business Administration at the University of Michigan.

Jennings is a member of the boards of directors of the Columbus Area Chamber of Commerce, Ohio Bell Telephone Co., Banc One Corp., and the Center of Science and Industry. He is a member of the Board of Trustees of Children's Hospital Inc. of Columbus.

In 1981, he received the Ohio Governor's Award for his contributions to education. In 1987, Jennings received the Affirmative Action Award of Distinction from Ohio State's Committee on Women and Minorities.

Jennings received the 1988 Distinguished Service Award from the Black Clergy of Greater Cleveland in recognition of Ohio State's affirmative action plan.

He is the co-author of a textbook, "Fundamentals of Investments," now in its fourth printing, and the author of several articles that have been published in academic journals and professional reviews on bonds, common stock, inflation and other investment and financial topics.

Jennings' wife, Barbara, is employed by The Ohio Co. He has two sons, William F. and Steven W. Jennings.

James L. Jones—Director of Athletics

Jim Jones was named Director of Athletics at The Ohio State University in November of 1987. He is the sixth athletic director in the school's history.

At Ohio State, Jones, whose first task in his present role was to hire John Cooper as the Buckeyes' head football coach, oversees one of the nation's largest athletic programs. There are 31 varsity sports at Ohio State and the annual operating budget exceeds $20 million.

Jones has been a member of the Ohio State staff since 1965 and a member of the athletic department since 1967. He has served under four of the school's five previous athletic directors and is widely respected in college athletic circles as a knowledgeable and capable administrator.

Jones serves on a variety of NCAA and Big Ten committees, including the NCAA's Special Events Committee and the Big Ten's Bowl Liaison Committee. He currently is chair of the Big Ten's Basketball Officials Committee and is a member of both the Promotions/Television and the Men's Basketball and Football/Television Committees. Additionally, he served on the search committee that recently recommended James Delany as the Big Ten's new commissioner.

Jones came to Ohio State in 1965 as a member of the physical education department. He joined the athletic department ranks in 1967 as the academic counselor for the football team. During his four years on Woody Hayes' staff, the Buckeyes captured three Big Ten titles and won the 1968 national championship. The 1968 staff recently was named by The Sporting News as one of the top 25 college football staffs of all-time.

Following the 1970 season, Jones left the football staff to become assistant athletic director. In his new role, his primary responsibilities were administering the grant-in-aid program and overseeing eligibility and rules compliance. He also was responsible for team travel and maintaining the physical plant.

In 1977, Jones was named senior associate athletic director. In that capacity, his duties included the day-to-day operation of the athletic department and responsibility for the business, counseling and sports information offices. Additionally, he frequently represented Ohio State at Big Ten and NCAA meetings.

Jones is a native of Cuyahoga Falls, O. He graduated from Kent State in 1958 with a degree in mathematics and physical education and received his master's degree in education in 1965 from Ball State. Between 1958 and 1964, Jones spent six years as a high school teacher, administrator and coach in northeastern Ohio.

Jones and his wife, Linda, have two children, Bill and Lynnae.

Bill Myles
Associate
Athletic Director

Bill Myles was named Associate Director of Athletics on March 19, 1985. He is responsible for overseeing Ohio State's 18 men's sports, including budgets, schedules, travel, home game administration and evaluation of the coaches.

Prior to his present position, Myles served as an assistant football coach at Ohio State for eight years. He was hired by Coach Woody Hayes in 1977 and retained when Earle Bruce took over in 1979.

Myles is a native of Kansas City, Mo. He graduated from Drake in 1962 and received his master's from Central Missouri State in 1967.

As an undergraduate, Myles played center and linebacker on the Drake football team. Since graduation, he has received two of his alma mater's most prestigious honors — the Double D Award, which goes to an athlete who later distinguishes himself in his chosen profession; and the Distinguished Service Award, the highest honor given by the Drake National Alumni Association.

Myles began his coaching career in 1962 in Kansas City as a high school assistant. In 1965, he became a head coach and during the next seven years his teams posted a combined record of 45-20-3. He was named Kansas City Area Man of the Year in 1970 and Greater Kansas City Coach of the Year in 1971.

In 1972, Myles went to the University of Nebraska as a line coach and in 1975 became linebacker coach. After four years on Tom Osborne's staff, he joined the OSU staff as tackles and tight ends coach.

Bill and his wife, Lorita, have a daughter, Debbie, and a son, Bill.

Phyllis Bailey
Associate
Athletic Director

Phyllis Bailey has been a member of The Ohio State University faculty since 1956. She has served as Associate Director of Athletics since July of 1977. Her duties are to supervise the women's athletic program at Ohio State.

Bailey has played a major role in the development of women's sports at Ohio State, starting in 1965-66, when athletic competition began, to the present time, when Ohio State has 12 women's sports. A successful women's program was guaranteed in 1976, when an extensive grant-in-aid program was instituted.

Ohio State's women's teams have been very successful. Buckeye squads have won more Big Ten championships than any other conference school and consistently have competed well on a national level in a variety of sports.

Bailey is a graduate of Miami University. She taught physical education at Earlham College and at Wayne State University before coming to Ohio State in 1956. In 1959, she became Associate Director of Recreation, Intramurals and Intercollegiate Sports for Women. She joined the Athletic Department in 1975 as Assistant Director.

Bailey has served on numerous Big Ten and NCAA committees. She currently is a member of the prestigious NCAA Women's Basketball Committee.

Paul Krebs
Assistant
Athletic Director

Paul Krebs has served as Ohio State's Ticket Director since January of 1985. In July of 1987, he was named Assistant Athletic Director and given the added responsibility of overseeing promotions and marketing, two of the faster growing areas in the athletic department.

In his current capacity, Krebs has charge of coordinating such special projects as "Buckeye Fever," OSU's highly successful grocery promotion, and the Buckeye Pro-Am Golf Tournament. Other promotions that Krebs has been involved with include Spring Game '88 and the Buckeye Classic, a holiday tournament for the women's basketball team.

Under Krebs' direction, the Ticket Office has developed a computerized system which has greatly enhanced its overall efficiency.

Krebs, 33, is a native of Canfield, O., and a 1978 graduate of Bowling Green. He earned his master's in Sports Administration from Ohio State in 1981. While working on the latter, he spent one quarter as a student intern in the OSU Ticket Office.

After receiving his master's, Krebs interned for a year in the Oklahoma Ticket Office. In 1981, he was named assistant ticket manager and in 1982, at the age of 25, was appointed ticket manager.

Paul is married to the former Marjori Maddox and has a daughter, Taylor.

Archie Griffin
Assistant
Athletic Director

One of the most talented and popular football players in Ohio State history, Archie Griffin joined the Athletic Department in 1985. He served two years as Special Assistant to the Director before being named Assistant Director of Athletics in 1987. His chief duties are in the area of athletic fund raising. Additionally, he represents the Director's office at various functions around the state and across the nation.

Griffin is college football's only two-time Heisman Trophy winner. He won college football's most coveted award in 1974 as a junior and then made history by winning it a second time in 1975. A three-time All-American, Griffin is the leading rusher in Ohio State and Big Ten history with an incredible 5,589 career yards. All four of his Ohio State teams won Big Ten championships and he has the rare distinction of starting in four Rose Bowls.

In addition to two Heisman Trophies, Griffin also is one of just two players ever to win back-to-back Silver Footballs as the Big Ten's MVP. He also was a two-time choice by U.P.I. as College Football Player of the Year.

A two-time team captain, Griffin still ranks fourth on the all-time NCAA rushing list with 5,177 yards (does not include bowl games). His 6.13 yards per carry average is an NCAA record. He also holds the NCAA record for consecutive 100-yard games (31).

Griffin graduated from Ohio State in 1976 with a degree in industrial relations. A first round draft choice, he played in the NFL for eight years, all with the Cincinnati Bengals.

Archie is married to the former Bonita Davis and has two sons, Anthony and Andre.

Coach John Cooper made his Ohio State debut one to remember by guiding his Buckeyes to a 26-9 win over visiting Syracuse. The victory, in front of an opening day record crowd of 89,768 and an ABC-TV audience, snapped the Orange's unbeaten string at 14. The latter had been the longest in the country at Division I.

Cooper wasn't the only Buckeye to make an impressive debut. Quarterback Greg Frey completed 12 of 17 passes for 141 yards and one touchdown in his first start, while strong safety Jim Peel collected 11 tackles in his first game as a regular.

There were other standouts, too. Kicker Pat O'Morrow came within one field goal of the school record by booting four three-pointers, and walk-on punter Jeff Bohlman averaged 45.5 yards per kick in his debut.

OSU did not commit a turnover or have a penalty, the first "perfect" game for the Buckeyes since 1961.

The 17th-ranked (U.P.I.) Buckeyes found the Panthers' den not to their liking. Pitt jumped on OSU early, capitalizing on an interception and an illegal participation penalty for a 14-0 lead midway through the first quarter.

The Buckeyes could not defend Pitt's one-two punch of quarterback Darnell Dickerson and tailback Adam Walker. Dickerson ran the Panther option to perfection, picking up 88 yards and two touchdowns on 11 carries. Walker sliced through the Ohio State defensive forces for 179 yards and three touchdowns on 27 carries.

Pitt outgained OSU 504 to 233 in total yardage.

Ohio State's lone offensive spark came from tailback Carlos Snow. Snow rushed five times for 33 yards and returned five kickoffs for a school record 214 yards. His last runback was a brilliant 100-yard touchdown-scoring effort.

In a game that will take its place in history as one of the greatest ever played in Ohio Stadium, Ohio State rallied from a 13-point deficit to upset seventh-ranked LSU, 36-33.

The Tigers led 33-20 with 4:29 to play. But OSU somehow rallied.

First, tailback Carlos Snow sliced into the end zone from five yards out to cap off a 10-play, 59-yard drive. LSU 33, Ohio State 27.

Then, the OSU defense, which earlier had scored on a blocked punt, held the Tigers on downs. LSU opted for a safety and a free kick. LSU 33, Ohio State 29.

The stage was set for one of the most dramatic endings in OSU history. Flanker Bobby Olive was the star of the final act. His 30-yard runback of LSU's free kick put the ball at the Tigers' 38-yard line. Four plays later his diving catch in the end zone of a perfectly thrown Greg Frey pass sent the second largest crowd in Ohio Stadium history into a frenzy.

OSU held that Tiger, but the victory did not come cheaply. Linebacker Andy Gurd would miss the remainder of the season because of a shoulder injury.

Illinois used three fourth-quarter touchdowns, including two in the opening minutes of the final stanza, to break open a close game and win its first game in Ohio Stadium in 10 tries.

The Illini took a tenuous 10-6 lead into the final frame. But they expanded that margin to 17-6 with 14:56 to play on a five-yard run by Howard Griffith. Griffith's score was set up by an OSU fumble.

A little more than two minutes later, the Illini scored again when Patrick Donnelly fell on a muffed punt snap in the OSU end zone and Illinois owned a 24-6 lead. Greg Frey's pass and Jeff Graham's sensational one-handed grab in the end zone was simply a case of too little, too late for the Buckeyes, and Griffith's second TD jaunt of the day was merely frosting on the cake for the Illini.

Tailbacks Marc Hicks and Carlos Snow missed the game with injuries. John Spencer, fourth on the depth chart at the beginning of the year, started.

In addition to losing their Big Ten opener, the Buckeyes also lost defensive tackle Mike Showalter, an all-conference candidate. Showalter injured an ankle prior to the game and was later ruled out for the year.

All-American tailback Anthony Thompson put on a one-man show for the Hoosiers, rushing for four touchdowns and 190 yards on 32 carries. With the Indiana junior enjoying the best day of his career, the Hoosiers scored on five straight possessions and took a 35-0 lead before the Buckeyes countered with their only TD of the day, an eight-yard run by Jaymes Bryant.

In running their record to 4-0-1, the Hoosiers forced the Buckeyes into five turnovers, including three interceptions that resulted in IU touchdowns.

For the third straight game, the Buckeyes lost one of their top players. This time it was outside linebacker Michael McCray, an All-American candidate in his own right until a groin pull against the Hoosiers limited his playing time the rest of the season.

Carlos Snow started the game at tailback, but could go just two series. Bryant, moved back to tailback at the start of the week (from fullback), came off the bench to rush for a season high 98 yards. But, on that day at least, he was no match for the inspired Thompson.

Purdue rallied from a 13-point deficit to spoil the Buckeyes' homecoming.

Trailing 20-7 early in the third quarter, the Boilers scored 21 unanswered points to take a 28-20 lead at the start of the fourth quarter. The go-ahead touchdown followed a fumbled kickoff return by the Buckeyes. It was one of two costly turnovers for OSU. The other came with 1:14 to play in the game — a third down interception by Derrick Kelson on the Purdue 31 that snuffed out OSU's last-ditch drive.

Freshman quarterback Brian Fox engineered the Boiler upset, accounting for four touchdowns, one running and three through the air. Two of his TD tosses went to fullback Ernie Schramayr, who repeatedly slipped out of the backfield and into the open for Fox to find. Schramayr kept the possession arrow pointing toward the Boilers end zone all day long by catching 13 passes for 106 yards.

A healthy Carlos Snow enjoyed his first 100-yard day as a Buckeye, rushing for 128 yards, including a 58-yard touchdown, on 20 carries. Ohio State finished with a season high 416 yards in total offense.

Linebacker Orlondo Craig and safety David Brown played the lead roles in a dramatic goal-line stand that had all the tension of an Alfred Hitchcock thriller.

With Ohio State leading 13-6 thanks to a pair of Pat O'Morrow field goals and a 27-yard run by Carlos Snow, Gopher fans were on the edge of their seats when quarterback Scott Schaffner scrambled 14 yards for a first down at the OSU one-yard line with 2:28 left to play.

But it was Craig's turn at center stage and the junior linebacker acted out his role to perfection, twice stopping Gopher tailback Darrell Thompson for no gain on dives over the middle.

Then, on third down, Brown got into the act, throwing Schaffner for a 10-yard loss on a blitz. When Schaffner's fourth-down pass fell incomplete in the end zone, the Buckeyes had their first Big Ten victory of the year.

In addition to holding the Gophers to two first half field goals and 284 total yards on the day, the OSU defensive corps held Thompson to less than 100 yards for the third straight year.

The game was a reunion of sorts for Schaffner and OSU counterpart, Greg Frey, former high school rivals in Cincinnati.

A pair of third quarter turnovers led to 10 Michigan State points and enabled the Spartans to hold off the Buckeyes.

OSU tied the game just before halftime and appeared ready to re-take the lead early in the third quarter. But after driving to the Michigan State nine-yard line on their first possession, the Buckeyes committed the first of three straight miscues.

The first, an intercepted pitch, stalled a potential scoring drive. The next two, both fumbles (one at the Michigan State 39 and the other at the OSU eight), resulted in a touchdown and field goal for the Spartans.

OSU drove to the Michigan State five with just under five minutes to play, but the Spartans' opportunistic defense again rose to the occasion by intercepting a pass in the corner of the end zone.

Michigan State, behind the blocking of All-American tackle Tony Mandarich, rushed for 372 yards, with both Blake Ezor and Hyland Hickson topping the 100-yard mark.

In addition to being credited with 16 tackles, the best mark of the year by an OSU defender, cornerback Zack Dumas blocked a field goal and recovered a fumble.

Greg Frey accounted for three second quarter touchdowns as the Buckeyes defeated Wisconsin on a rainy afternoon in Ohio Stadium. The Badgers had won five of the seven previous games played with the Buckeyes.

Two of Frey's TD's came via the pass, his first game of the year with more than one scoring toss. The first, to tailback Marc Hicks, covered 21 yards. The second, to split end Jeff Graham, was from 13 yards out. In between, Frey sneaked over from the one, but was lucky to do so. With the ball a yard away from the Wisconsin goal line and Ohio State on top 10-6, Frey attempted to hand off to tailback Carlos Snow. But before the transaction could be completed, pulling guard Jeff Davidson (6-6 and 300 pounds) jarred the ball loose. Frey, however, alertly fielded it in mid-air and fell into the end zone for the score.

The Badgers' total yardage figure of 277 was the second lowest figure of the year by an OSU opponent (Syracuse was held to 275).

Kicker Pat O'Morrow's 46-yard field goal was the longest of his Ohio State career.

The Buckeyes came within a foot of upsetting the heavily favored Hawkeyes on their own turf. But Iowa's Jeff Skillett booted a 40-yard field goal with 16 seconds left and Ohio State flew back to Columbus with its first Big Ten tie in 15 years.

Skillett, who missed three earlier field goal attempts, split the uprights on his final try, spoiling a comeback bid by the Buckeyes, who rallied from 14-0 and 21-7 deficits to take a 24-21 lead with 8:21 to play on Pat O'Morrow's 39-yard field goal.

The OSU defense held the explosive Hawkeye offense in check after the first quarter. Twins John and Mike Sullivan were the catalysts for the Buckeyes, John pressuring Iowa quarterback Chuck Hartlieb into a hurried throw that Mike intercepted and ran back 13 yards for Ohio State's first score. It was the first touchdown ever for Sullivan.

After the two teams traded touchdowns, Ohio State tied the score at 21-21 on Scotty Graham's nine-yard run. The 78-yard drive featured a 27-yard run by Carlos Snow. Ohio State took its first lead of the day with 8:21 to play when O'Morrow converted from 39 yards out.

But after the Buckeyes came up inches short on a third-down try, Iowa salvaged its third tie of the season on Skillett's kick.

John Cooper's first Ohio State-Michigan game was everything an Ohio State-Michigan game is supposed to be-and then some.

Michigan entered the game already assured of at least a share of the Big Ten title and a trip to the Rose Bowl. The Wolverines were a heavy favorite over the host Buckeyes.

For a while, at least, it looked like the oddsmakers knew what they were talking about.

Michigan jumped off to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter and led 20-0 at the half. The Wolverines dominated the statistics the first 30 minutes, outgaining OSU 313 to 116 in total yards.

But it would have been a mistake to head for the exits at intermission.

Sparked by the running of sophomore tailback Carlos Snow, the Buckeyes mounted a comeback that turned an apparent rout into one of the greatest games ever played between the two Big Ten giants.

With 8:30 left in the game, Ohio State took a 24-20 lead and had scored on all four second-half possessions.

Back came Michigan. The Wolverines scored with 4:20 to go on an eight-yard Leroy Hoard run and led 27-24.

Again Ohio State rallied. Starting on their own eight, the Buckeyes moved 92 yards in six plays, fullback Bill Matlock bulldozing into the end zone from 16 yards out. The clock showed 2:02 remaining.

But Michigan still had something left. With 1:37 to play, Demetrius Brown and John Kolesar hooked up on a 41-yard TD that was set up by Kolesar's 59-yard kick return. It was the final score of a wild second half in which the two teams combined for 45 points and Ohio State amassed 353 yards.

Snow finished with a career-high 170 yards on 25 carries, 106 of those yards coming in the second half. Pat O'Morrow's 21-yard field goal in the fourth quarter was his 18th of the year, tying the OSU single-season record.

Split end Jeff Graham is expected to develop into one of the top receivers in the Big Ten this year. Graham averaged 16.2 yards per catch last year, tops on the squad.

Ohio Stadium, the unique double-decked horseshoe structure that is listed in the National Register of Historic Places, has been the home of Ohio State football since 1922.

Prior to the 1922 season, Ohio State played its home games at 14,000 seat Ohio Field. But when the Buckeyes joined the Western Conference (now the Big Ten) in 1913, Director of Athletics L.W. St. John initiated a drive for a larger facility.

Although World War I temporarily delayed St. John's dream, the stadium campaign was officially launched in October of 1920. In one of the first ever athletic fund raisers, $1,083,000 was raised through the generous contributions of alumni, students, faculty and staff, Columbus residents and friends of Ohio State.

Construction began in August of 1921 and little more than a year later, Oct. 7, 1922, the Buckeyes played Ohio Wesleyan in the first game in the giant horseshoe. The Stadium was officially dedicated two weeks later against Michigan.

Final cost of the stadium was $1,341,000 and the original capacity was 66,210. Skeptics doubted that the stadium would ever be filled, but when an overflow crowd of 71,385 showed up for the dedication game those fears were quickly put to rest.

Over the years, through such additions as field seats and boxes and the south stands, the capacity of Ohio Stadium has gradually increased to its present figure of 86,071.

The surface of the stadium was natural grass between 1922 and 1970. In 1971, however, artifical turf (AstroTurf) was installed, and in 1979 a second artificial carpet, this time Super Turf, was put down. This past spring, the decision was made to return to natural grass beginning with the 1990 football season.

In 1984, a state-of-the-art scoreboard was installed, featuring the very latest in computer graphics. The cost of the scoreboard, which conforms to the architecture of the stadium, was $2.6 million.

In the 66 years that Ohio Stadium has stood, nearly 30,000,000 fans have passed through its gates to see 380 games -- an average of approximately 70,000.

The Buckeyes, who in 21 of the past 38 years have led the nation in home game attendance, enter the 1989 season with a string of 39 consecutive home sellouts.

Academic Excellence at OSU

Excellence at Ohio State extends beyond the playing field. In each of the past 25 years, the Buckeyes have had at least one player selected to the Big Ten's All-Academic team.

Additionally, over the years 24 Ohio State players have won Academic All-American acclaim.

In 1985, flanker Mike Lanese, in addition to being honored as an Academic All-American for the second straight season, was one of 32 American college seniors selected as a Rhodes scholar, adding yet another page to Ohio State's record of distinction in the classroom.

Ohio State's Bowl History

Ohio State made Big Ten history by becoming the first conference school to play in all five major New Year's Day Bowl Games—the Rose, Orange, Cotton, Sugar and Fiesta Bowls.

Additionally, the Buckeyes have played in the Gator, Liberty, Holiday and Florida Citrus Bowls.

Overall, Ohio State has played in 21 bowl games.

1921 Rose Bowl

California	7	14	0	7—28
Ohio State	0	0	0	0— 0

Cal finished an undefeated season by spoiling OSU's first-ever Rose Bowl appearance, and tagging the Buckeyes with their first loss of the year. It was a season in which the Bears rolled up 510 points to 14 for the opposition, and a team that would remain undefeated from 1920 until 1924.

Cal quarterback Harold "Brick" Muller was named the player of the game and was credited with a 53-yard touchdown pass.

It marked only the second time that a Big 10 team had met a Pac 8 squad in the Rose Bowl, with Michigan having played Stanford in the very first game in 1902. It would be 26 years before the conferences would again butt heads on the West Coast (Illinois and UCLA in 1947).

1950 Rose Bowl

California	0	7	7	0—14
Ohio State	0	0	14	3—17

The Buckeyes avenged a loss to Cal in their first Rose Bowl trip by breaking a 14-14 tie in the fourth quarter to snatch a victory from the Bears.

With just more than three minutes remaining in the game, Cal quarterback Bob Celeri was back to punt at his own 16 on fourth down. A low snap forced Celeri to kick the ball off his wrong (left) foot, the ball dribbling out of bounds at the Cal 13.

Three plays advanced Ohio State to the 6, where Jimmy Hague kicked the winning field goal with under two minutes remaining.

It was a dramatic end to a game OSU had dominated early, outgaining Cal 143-15 in total yards in the first half and driving inside the Bears' 20 three times with nothing to show for it. Two Ohio State touchdowns had been called back by penalty.

For the game, OSU held a 255-239 advantage in yardage, gaining 221 on the ground. Fred Morrison topped all carriers with 127 yards for the Buckeyes.

Individual Leaders

Rushing—CAL—Monachino 14-90, Brunk 9-38

1955 Rose Bowl

Southern Cal	0	7	0	0— 7
Ohio State	0	14	0	6—20

Woody Hayes made his first trip to the Rose Bowl a memorable one, as the Buckeyes dominated the Trojans in the rain and mud. OSU and UCLA had tied for national championship honors, but the Bruins were excluded from the bowl because of the "no repeat" rule that was in effect.

Led by Howard "Hopalong" Cassady, the Buckeye ground game drove for 304 yards, helping OSU to a 360-206 advantage in total offense. Cassady ran for 92 yards, Bill Leggett for 67 and Bob Watkins for 64. Leggett, the Ohio State quarterback, was named the outstanding player of the game. He completed six of 11 passes on the day for 63 yards and a touchdown.

The lone bright spot for USC fans came when halfback Aramis Dandoy set a Rose Bowl record with an 86-yard punt return for the Trojans' only score.

Individual Leaders

Rushing—USC—Arnett 9-123, Duvall 5-23
OSU—H. Cassady 21-92,

1958 Rose Bowl

Oregon	0	7	0	0— 7
Ohio State	7	0	0	3—10

Unbeaten and already proclaimed national champions, the Buckeyes were heavy favorites over the Ducks, but the game proved to be quite a struggle.

Ohio State drove 79 yards on its first possession to take an early 7-0 lead. Frank Kremblas capped the drive by going in from a yard away, then converted the extra point.

Oregon came back to tie it at 7-7 before the half, and actually had a chance to lead the Buckeyes in the third period with a field goal attempt that failed from the Ohio 24.

The game came down to Don Sutherin's 24-yard field goal with 14:02 to go in the game. Oregon was stopped by a fumble on its next possession, and drove to the OSU 47 on its last drive before running out of downs.

Individual Leaders

1969 Rose Bowl

Southern Cal	0	10	0	6—16
Ohio State	0	10	3	14—27

The Buckeyes put the finishing touches on a perfect 10-0 season and a national championship by coming from behind to beat Southern Cal. The game had matched unbeaten teams for the first time in the 22-year history of the Big 10-Pac 8 meeting at the Rose Bowl.

Heisman Trophy winner O.J. Simpson had followed a USC field goal with an 80-yard run to take the Trojans to a 10-0 lead midway through the second period. Ohio State answered with a 69-yard drive climaxed with a one-yard plunge by Jim Otis, and a 16-yard field goal by Jim Roman to tie before the half.

OSU would put it away with 14 points early in the final quarter. A USC fumble at the Trojans' 21 set up a Rex Kern pass to Leo Hayden for the final four yards, then a fumbled reception cost Southern Cal the ball again at its own 16. Kern hit Ray Gillian on the Buckeyes' first down for the score and a commanding 27-10 lead with 10:05 remaining. USC turned the ball over five times on the day, while OSU was error-free.

Kern was named the outstanding player of the game, rushing for 35 yards and passing for 101 and a pair of touchdowns. Jim Otis and Hayden combined for 191 yards, while Simpson closed out his career with 171 yards rushing and eight receptions for 85 yards.

1971 Rose Bowl

Stanford	10	0	3	14—27
Ohio State	7	7	3	0—17

Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett quarterbacked Stanford to a come-from-behind win over the favored and previously unbeaten Buckeyes.

Plunkett passed 30 times, completing 20 for 265 yards and a touchdown.

His performance offset a tremendous rushing day for Ohio State, as the Buckeyes rolled up 364 yards on the ground, and actually led the Cardinal in total offense, 439-408. Rex Kern led OSU with 129 yards rushing, while John Brockington added 101 and both Buckeye touchdowns.

Stanford scored the first two times it had the ball, only to see Ohio State gain a 14-10 lead at the half. After trading third quarter field goals, OSU drove from its own 6 to the Stanford 19 to begin the final period. On fourth and less than a yard, the Cardinal defense stopped Brockington short of the first down. Plunkett then ran and passed down the field for the go-ahead score.

An interception of Kern on the next OSU series set up a Plunkett to Randy Vataha 10-yard scoring toss that sealed the win.

Southern Cal	7	0	21	14—42
Ohio State	0	7	3	7—17

Led by tailback Anthony Davis, Southern Cal broke a 7-7 halftime tie with three third quarter touchdowns to sideline the Buckeyes. Davis collected 157 of USC's 207 rushing yards and set up a Rose Bowl-record four Sam Cunningham touchdown runs.

The Trojans scored each time they touched the ball in the third period, Cunningham going in twice and Davis once from 20 yards. The final tally was set up by a 48-yard interception return by Charles Phillips to the OSU 32.

The third period overshadowed a fine first half effort by Ohio State, which dominated USC in the first 20 minutes. At the half OSU held a 151-75 edge in rushing yards. The Buckeyes' Archie Griffin tallied 73 yards on 15 carries in the first half, to Davis' 86 on 12.

Ohio State appeared to be in gear when fullback Randy Keith capped a 56-yard, eight-play drive with 13:37 to go in the first half. But OSU could manage only a Blair Conway field goal in the third period and a five-yard John Bledsoe dash that ended an 87-yard drive with :44 showing to play in the game.

1974 Rose Bowl

Southern Cal	3	11	7	0—21

Ohio State used a powerful running attack, led by Archie Griffin's 149 yards, to break open a close game and run past USC. Pete Johnson added 94 yards and three touchdowns for the Buckeyes, who totaled 320 yards on the ground for the day.

OSU fell behind, 21-14, early in the third period before scoring the final 13 points of the quarter. The first score was set up by a Cornelius Greene to Fred Pagac pass good for 39 yards to the USC 4. Johnson bulled over for the tally, and a blocked extra point kick left it 21-20.

Ohio State took the lead for good after Neal Colzie set up the go-ahead score with a 56-yard punt return to the USC 9. Greene covered the final yard with 2:12 left in the period for a 27-21 lead.

Griffin capped the final scoring drive with 4:35 remaining in the game by dashing 47 yards over right tackle for his only score of the day.

Greene was good on six of eight passing attempts for 129 yards and helped OSU to a 449-406 advantage in total offense. The USC passing attack, led by Pat Haden, netted 239 yards.

Southern Cal	3	0	0	15—18
Ohio State	0	7	0	10—17

Flanker Shelton Diggs made a diving catch of a Pat Haden pass for a two-point conversion with slightly more than two minutes left in the game to bring the Trojans from behind and spoil Ohio State's national championship hopes. It ended a wild final stanza in which 25 of the game's 35 points were scored.

The third period was one of missed opportunities for the Buckeyes, who twice had the ball inside the USC 10 but failed to score.

Ohio State had staked itself to a 17-10 lead by scoring on its first two possessions of the fourth period, however. Cornelius Greene engineered an 82-yard drive, covering the final three himself for the first score. Following a USC fumble at its own 30, Tom Klaban kicked a field goal when the Buckeyes stalled out at the 15.

Haden, starting at the USC 17, took the Trojans 83 yards to the eventual winning touchdown and conversion. The game ended on OSU's ensuing drive when Tom Skladany's 62-yard field goal try fell short.

Southern Cal outgained OSU 461-286 in total offense. Heisman Trophy winner Archie Griffin was held to 75 yards rushing.

1976 Rose Bowl

UCLA	0	0	16	7—23
Ohio State	3	0	0	7—10

All-American quarterback John Sciarra led UCLA to 23 second-half points to upset top-ranked and previously unbeaten Ohio State. Sciarra hit on nine of 13 second-half attempts for 173 yards, helping the Bruins amass 366 yards in total offense in the half.

Despite the backfield of Big 10 MVP Cornelius Greene, two-time Heisman Award winner Archie Griffin and national scoring leader Pete Johnson, OSU was limited to 124 yards in the second half.

Ohio State was impressive offensively in the first half, gaining 174 yards and 11 first downs, but managed only a 3-0 lead. Defensively, the Buckeyes held the UCLA offense to 48 yards.

But sparked by Sciarra and the running of Wendell Tyler, the Bruins roared back to dash OSU's national championship hopes and spoil a fourth straight Rose Bowl trip for the Buckeye seniors. Sciarra directed drives of 61 and 83 yards in the third quarter, hitting Wally Henry with scoring tosses of 16 and 67 yards.

OSU answered with a 65-yard scoring march to close it to 16-10, but Tyler broke away for a 54-yard touchdown run to up the margin and close out the scoring.

A last ditch drive by the Buckeyes ended after an incompletion on fourth-and-17 at the Ohio State 46.

1977 Orange Bowl

Colorado	10	0	0	0—10
Ohio State	7	10	3	7—27

After Colorado jumped out to an early 10-0 lead, Rod Gerald jumped off the Buckeyes' bench to lead OSU to its ninth victory of the season.

Gerald, idle since the seventh game of the schedule with a bone chip in his lower back, rushed 14 times for 81 yards, including 17 on his first snap. That run set up a 36-yard scoring dash by Jeff Logan to get OSU on the board with 3:11 to go in the first quarter.

The Buckeyes would go on to score on the next two possessions, beginning with Tom Skladany's 28-yard field goal with 9:33 left in the half. Pete Johnson went in from three yards out to cap a 99-yard march following a blocked Buffalo field goal attempt to give OSU the lead for good with 24 seconds remaining before intermission.

Gerald ended the scoring with a 4-yard run late in the fourth period, and was later named the back of the game.

OSU outgained Colorado 330-271, including 271 yards rushing. Ron Springs led all rushers in the game with 98 yards for OSU. Skladany, who handled all the placement and punting chores, was good on two of four field goal tries, missing only from 56 and 53 yards.

In a first-ever meeting between coaching legends Woody Hayes of Ohio State and Paul "Bear" Bryant of Alabama, the Crimson Tide made a pitch for the national championship with a convincing performance. It also marked OSU's first appearance in the Sugar Bowl.

Alabama's Jeff Rutledge was the game's most valuable player. Rutledge was good on eight of 11 passing attempts for 109 yards, including scoring-strikes of 27 yards to Bruce Bolton and a three yarder to Rick Neal to stake the Tide to a 21-0 lead in the third quarter.

Alabama rolled up 389 yards in total offense, 286 on the ground. Ohio State was limited to 263 yards, and gave up the ball three times on interceptions. The lone Buckeye score was a 38-yard Rod Gerald to Jim Harrell pass which capped an 85-yard drive.

The Buckeyes' defense did cause 10 Crimson Tide fumbles on the day, but Alabama lost only two of the miscues.

Clemson	0	10	7	0—17
Ohio State	0	9	0	6—15

Clemson won its 10th straight game of the season and 11th overall by holding off Ohio State in Woody Hayes' last game as head coach at OSU.

After Bob Atha gave Ohio State an early 3-0 lead with a 27-yard field goal, Clemson's Steve Fuller, named the game's outstanding player, directed the Tigers on an 80-yard, seven-minute drive. Fuller passed for 25 yards and ran for 36, including the scoring jaunt of four yards, in the drive.

OSU freshman quarterback Art Schlichter answered with a 78-yard drive, scoring himself from four yards away. Vlade Janakievski's extra point kick was blocked, but Ohio State had the lead, 9-7.

Clemson scored the next 10 points before Schlichter tallied again at the end of an 88-yard march with 8:11 left in the game. His two-point conversion run was stopped short of the goal line.

OSU got a chance at victory when Tim Sawicki covered a Fuller fumble on the Clemson 24 with 4:22 remaining. But on third-and-five at the 24, the Tigers' Charlie Bauman stepped in front of a Schlichter pass intended for Ron Springs, and Ohio State's hopes were dashed.

The Buckeyes did win the statistical battle, outgaining Clemson 355-331 in total offense. Schlichter outdueled Fuller, 205-123 in the air and 70-38 on the ground.

Not even ranked in the pre-season polls, the Buckeyes posted an 11-0 regular season record. But, thanks to Charles White, their fairy tale season came to an end in the Rose Bowl.

White, the Heisman Trophy winner, shattered the Rose Bowl rushing record with 242 yards, including 71 yards on USC's game-winning drive.

Trailing 16-10 with 5:21 to play, the top ranked Trojans marched 83 yards in eight plays, with White diving over from the one for the score. The all-important point after knocked the No. 2 Buckeyes out of national championship contention.

A record crowd of 66,738 had hardly settled into its seats when Penn State's Curt Warner ran 64 yards for a touchdown on the Nittany Lions' first play from scrimmage.

The rest of the first half, however, belonged to the Buckeyes as quarterback Art Schlichter threw for 244 yards and three touchdowns to stake OSU to a 19-10 lead at intermission. Flanker Doug Donley was on the receiving end of two of those scoring passes and split end Gary Williams hauled in the third.

But after rolling up 339 yards in the first half, the Buckeyes were held to just 73 in the second by a fired up Penn State defense. And while the Nittany Lions' defense was pitching a shutout in the final two quarters, their offense tallied three touchdowns to win the second half and the game.

Navy	7	6	7	8—28
Ohio State	10	7	7	7—31

Underdog Navy put up a valiant fight for three quarters before finally falling to the Buckeyes. The win snapped a string of four straight bowl losses for Ohio State, dating back to the 1978 Sugar Bowl.

Art Schlichter, playing in his final game for the Buckeyes, threw his 49th and 50th career touchdown passes.

OSU led early, 10-0, but Navy, led by quarterback Marco Pagnanelli and running back Eddie Meyers, refused to quit and took a 20-17 lead midway through the third period.

Ohio State finally opened up a 31-20 lead early in the fourth quarter, but Navy cut the deficit to three with eight seconds left on a TD pass and a two-point conversion. OSU recovered the on-side kick and ran out the clock.

1982 Holiday Bowl

Brigham Young	0	10	0	7—17
Ohio State	3	14	17	13—47

There were those who thought Ohio State was the best team in the country during the last six weeks of the season. The Holiday Bowl did nothing to alter that line of thinking.

In winning their seventh straight game and their second consecutive bowl, the Buckeyes completely dominated the Cougars.

BYU led only once, 10-7, early in the second period. Tim Spencer's 61-yard run took care of that. Spencer scored two of the Buckeyes' TD's as did his backup, Jimmy Gayle.

OSU broke the game open with 17 points during a three-minute stretch beginning at the 8:57 mark of the third quarter.

While the OSU offense was rolling up 466 yards, the defense pretty much held the high scoring BYU offense in check, allowing 371 yards.

BYU quarterback Steve Young threw for 341 yards and two TD's, but he was intercepted once and sacked four times. Linebacker Marcus Marek had eight tackles to pass Tom Cousineau as OSU's all-time leading tackler.

Ohio State and Pittsburgh combined for 897 yards and scored 30 of their 51 points in the final 15 minutes of play to keep everyone in their seats.

Trailing 23-21 after a 37-yard field goal by Snuffy Everett had given Pitt its first lead with 2:39 to play, Ohio State marched 89 yards for the winning score.

Split end Thad Jemison scored the game winner, hauling in a 39-yard pass from Mike Tomczak with 39 seconds left on the clock.

Still it wasn't over. Pitt had one more at bat and quarterback John Congemi marched the Panthers to the Ohio 24 before being injured. He watched helplessly as sub Chris Jelic failed in his two tries to produce the winning score before time ran out.

Keith Byars scored two touchdowns for the Buckeyes, one on a 99-yard kick return. Jemison, who tied a Fiesta Bowl record with eight catches, was the game's MVP.

1985 Rose Bowl

Southern Cal	10	7	3	0—20
Ohio State	3	3	3	8—17

Ohio State outgained USC, 403-261, but the Trojan defense steadfastly refused to let the Buckeyes cross the goal line.

The Buckeyes found out early about the USC defense. On the third play of the game, tailback Keith Byars broke over right tackle, cut to the outside and raced 50 yards down the sideline to the USC five. Five plays later, OSU had to settle for the first of Rich Spangler's three field goals.

USC led 17-6 at the half on a pair of TD passes by Tim Green. Spangler made it 17-9 with a Rose Bowl record 52-yarder, but USC offset that score with Steve Jordan's second field goal of the afternoon.

Ohio State finally scored a TD with 7:34 to play on a Mike Tomczak to Cris Carter pass. Tomczak's run on the PAT made it 20-17.

OSU had one final possession and moved to the USC 43. But the next four plays resulted in a sack and three incompletions, and the Buckeyes' three-game bowl winning streak was ended.

Carter, the freshman split end, caught nine passes for 172 yards to shatter Don Hutson's Rose Bowl record for receiving yardage.

Brigham Young	0	7	0	0— 7
Ohio State	0	3	7	0—10

Three years later and on the opposite coast, the Buckeyes again defeated Brigham Young. But this time the game was in doubt until the final seconds. Surprisingly, it was the defenses and not the offenses that sparkled.

Ohio State held the high octane Cougars to 349 yards, limiting quarterback Robbie Bosco to 261 yards passing—about half his average. And each time Bosco threatened to bring his team back, the Buckeyes thwarted him with four interceptions.

All four of those intercepts came in the second half. The first two were by Larry Kolic. Kolic, the Buckeyes' middle guard, picked off his first on the second play of the third quarter and returned it 14 yards for a touchdown and a 10-7 OSU lead. That was the last score by either team.

In the fourth quarter, cornerback William White and safety Terry White each had interceptions in the end zone. The latter came with three seconds left.

In addition to four interceptions, BYU also lost a pair of fumbles to the hard hitting OSU defense.

Ohio State, the first Big Ten team to play in the Cotton Bowl, made a successful debut with a convincing 28-12 win over Southwest Conference champion Texas A&M. The Buckeyes resurrected several defenses from previous years to keep the explosive Aggie offense under control. The surprise defenses limited A&M to a single touchdown and a pair of field goals. Ohio State set a Cotton Bowl record by intercepting five Aggie passes, two of which were returned for touchdowns.

Aside from the turnovers and the return yardage, the statistics were fairly even, but Ohio State made the most of big plays.

Buckeye quarterback Jim Karsatos passed for 195 yards, with his prime targets being Nate Harris and Cris Carter.

Defensively, the entire Buckeye team deserved special accolades. Chris Spielman, with 11 tackles and two pass interceptions, was chosen "Top Defensive Player" in the game. Spielman's first interception was a 24-yard return for a touchdown that came at a point in which Ohio State led 7-6.

Michael Kee made Ohio State's fifth interception a memorable one, when he ran it back 49 yards for a Buckeye touchdown that put the game out of reach.

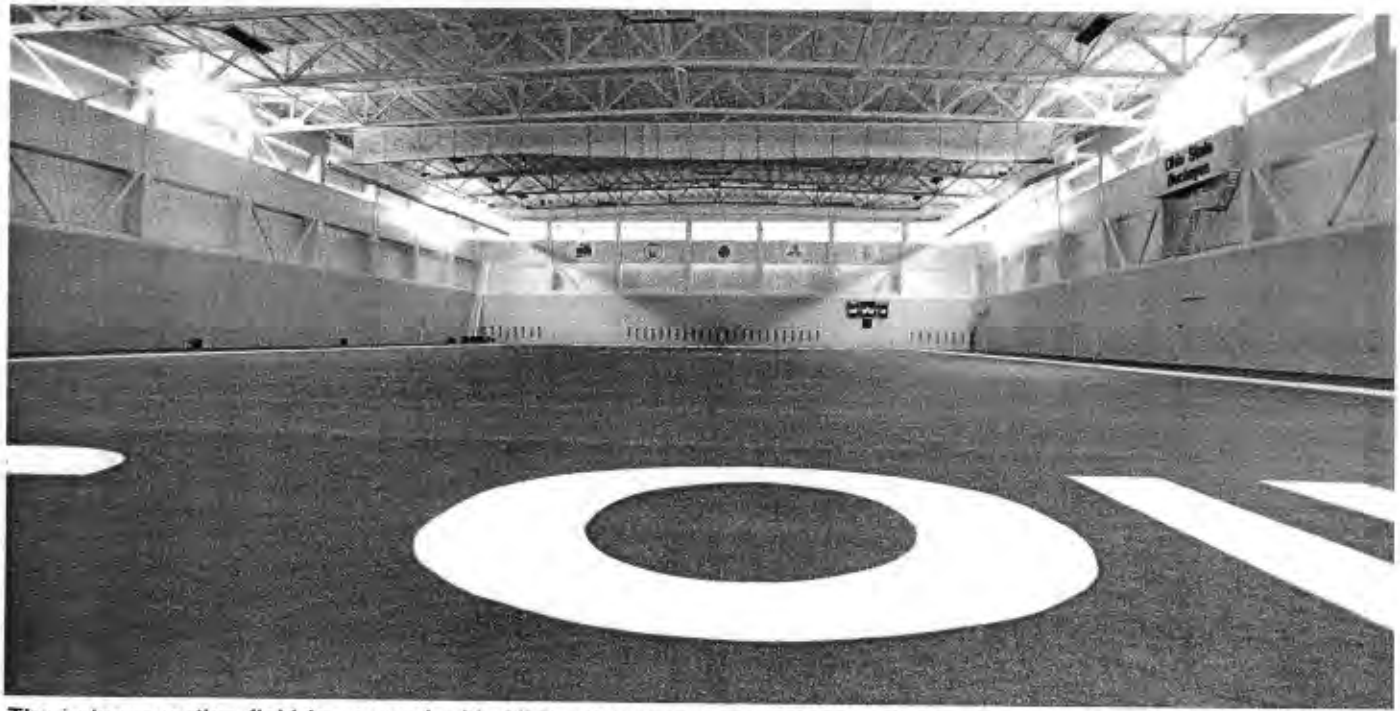
The Woody Hayes Athletic Center

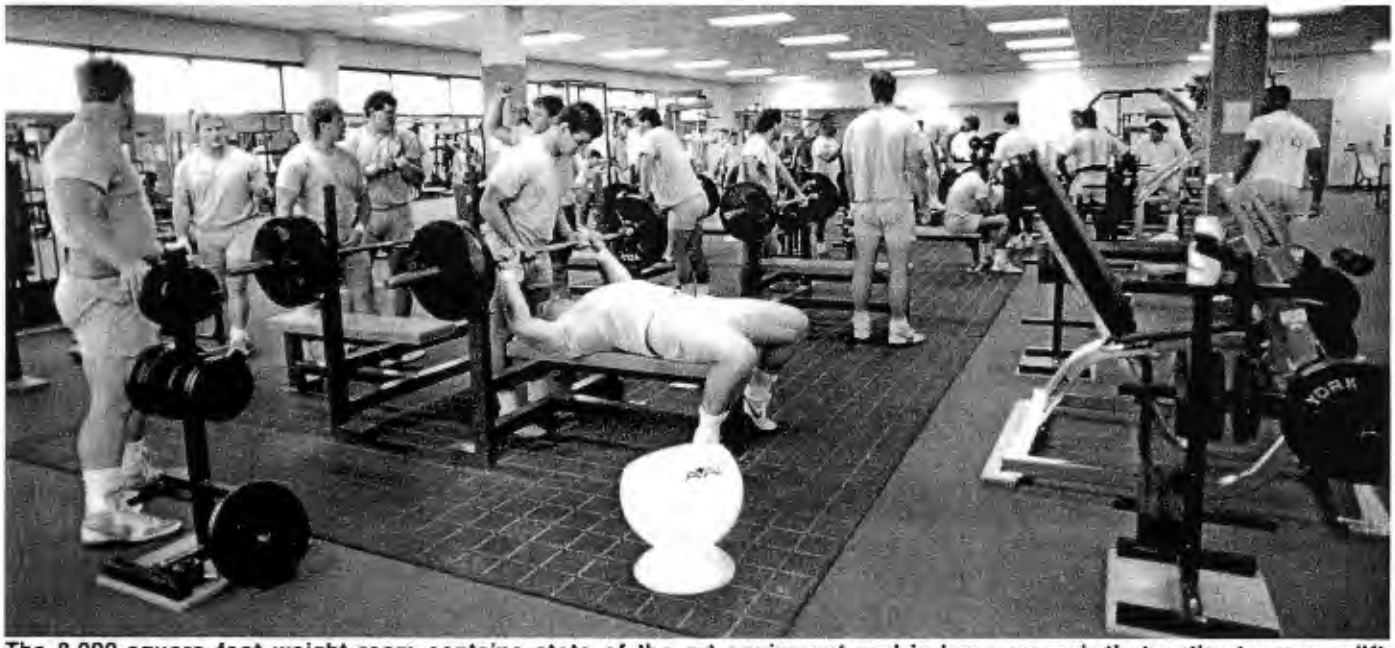
Dedicated in November of 1987 in memory of the late Woody Hayes, Ohio State's legendary football coach of nearly three decades, the Woody Hayes Athletic Center is one of the finest, most complete indoor facilities of its kind in college athletics.

In addition to an indoor field that is 400 feet long, 220 feet wide and 65 feet high, the $10.6 million complex features an 8,000-square foot weight room that has the very latest in free weights and Nautilus equipment, a spacious training room, eight individual classrooms for specialized instruction, an auditorium for team meetings, a lounge area suitable for studying and a locker room with 131 open-bay lockers.

The size of the total building is 167,000-square feet. Its walls are adorned with Ohio State history, including pictures of all past championship squads, head coaches, All-Americans and Academic All-Americans. The trophies on display at the new building include many of the past bowl trophies, as well as a number of individual trophies.

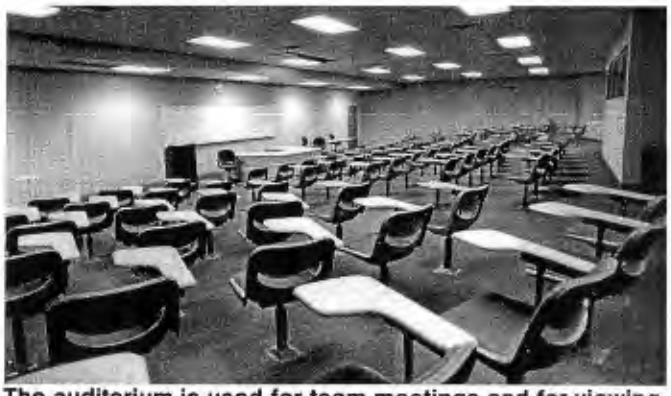


The indoor practice field is covered with All-Pro Turf and has a 30-foot safety area on each side of the field. As an added safety feature, there are no pillars or posts inside the building.



The 8,000-square foot weight room contains state of the art equipment and is large enough that entire team can lift at one time.

Each of the eight individual meeting rooms has a complete audio-visual system and is designed to allow the players a comfortable and practical atmosphere in which to learn.



The auditorium is used for team meetings and for viewing films.

There are 12 taping stations, six treatment tables and five hydrotherapy stations in the training room.

The Wall of Champions features past OSU Big Ten and National Champions.
